Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

RECERTIFICATION embodies the principles of lifelong learning and continuous improvement for the benefit of the public and the profession and aims to 1 establish and maintain high standards for patient care in ophthalmology, 2 provide physicians with the means to continually assess and improve their ability to meet these standards, 3 ensure that physicians are being assessed by reliable and valid measures to continually improve patient care. The goal of recertification is to continually set the standards of excellence in the quality of ophthalmic care by focusing on six general competencies integral to quality care: patient care, medical knowledge, practice-based learning and improvement, interpersonal and communication skills, professionalism, and systems-based practice. The ABO also recognizes a seventh competency in surgical skills. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Board Directors are paid a per diem for all face-to-face meetings. In addition to meetings, the Board Directors work approximately 10% or 4 hours per week on an annual basis for the Board. The per diem reimbursement for Directors is reflective of the benchmark of the median salary of a full professor of ophthalmology according to the AAMC Faculty Survey Report (based on 250 days of work/year). All expenses incurred by Directors are paid by the Directors from the per diem. Directors are also reimbursed travel costs. Compensation for individual directors may vary based on additional ABO activities for the current year in which some but not all directors may participate. The Executive Director's compensation is determined by the Executive Director Compensation Committee, which uses a standard formula in addition to review of similar organizations' 990s. The Executive Director is also evaluated by the Board and Staff on an annual basis. The formula used for Executive Director compensation is determined according to the AAMC Faculty Survey Report and is equal to - 75% of the median salary for Chair - 25% of 75th percentile salary for full professor. Staff compensation ranges are determined based on job scope and performance in reference to an independent salary survey that includes both national and local benchmarks. This survey is conducted once every two to three years with annual updates.
